Welcome to Mileage Plus

Thank you for joining MileagePlus®.

Your membership number is 03289081975.

You're on your way to earning miles that can be redeemed for flights, car rentals, hotel stays, merchandise and more.

In addition to earning miles when you fly with United, you can also build your mileage by doing the things you do every day. Shop with our MileagePlus partners to earn miles for each dollar spent, and watch for promotional offers that let you accumulate even more.

Please note that on March 3, all MileagePlus numbers will be converted to an eight character alpha-numeric format when United and Continental move to a single technology platform. No action is required on your part. As we approach March 3, watch your email and united.com for details about how to retrieve your new account number.
